

CUP 219.31/37

At a COURT OF ASSISTANTS of the HON. ARTILLERY-COMPANY, held at the Armory-House, on Thursday, July 23, 1795:

The following Regulations were ORDERED for Wednesday, the 12th Day of August next, being the Birth-Day of his Royal Highness the PRINCE OF WALES, Captain-General of the Company.

- I. THAT the Battalion parade, on that Day, in the Artillery-Ground, at Eleven o'Clock precisely, in the Uniform of the Company, completely armed and accoutred, and with the Hair clubbed, the Grenadiers only excepted, which must be platted and turned up behind.
- II. That no Gentleman be permitted to join the Battalion unless armed, accoutred, and dressed in the Uniform, agreeable to the Rules and Orders of the Company.
- III. That a Dinner be provided at the Armory-House: The Members that have been under Arms to pay Five Shillings each, and those, who dine with the Company, not having been under Arms, to pay Ten Shillings and Sixpence each,—the President, Vice-President, and Treasurer, excepted.
- IV. That the Members of the Archers Division, who do not join the Battalion during the Salute, be considered as not under Arms.
- V. That Tickets for the Dinner may be had of the Captains of the respective Divisions, of the Quarter-Master Mr. Peter Biggs, No. 98, Leadenhall-Street, or of the Secretary, No. 18, Artillery-Place, Finsbury-Square, on or before Saturday, the 8th of August, next, and that the Captains do account for the Tickets they have disposed of, with the Quater-Master, on that Day, at the Armory-House, at Six o'Clock in the Evening, that Dinner may be provided accordingly.
- VI. That no Servants be admitted but those of the Chiefs and Field-Officers.

By Order of the Court,

William White, Secretary.
